Choir Members Beatitudes

1. Blessed are they who have limited training, for theirs is the opportunity for musical growth.
2. Blessed are they that are not satisfied with their contributions to the choir, for surely they shall take measure to improve this situation.
3. Blessed are the faithful in attendance, for they shall become the pillars of strength on respective voice sections.
4. Blessed are they who are eager to learn their correct voice parts; for they shall be taught.
5. Blessed are they who realize the director can make mistakes occasionally so that they will not be embarrassed when error originates from them.
6. Blessed are the dedicated choir members; for they shall receive and impart the maximum musical inspiration.
7. Blessed are the "boosters" for they shall be called the backbone of the choir.
8. Blessed are they who can accept constructive criticism; for they are ultimately productive in divine music.
